Huskers Prove So Potent They Get A Second Shot

By DON BRYANT
Sports Information Director

Few college football teams have been so successful that they continue to repeat their act, but the 1978 Nebraska Cornhuskers can claim that honor.

Nobody, but nobody, was able to take the measure of the Oklahoma Sooners—ranked No. 1 most of the year—except the Nebraska Cornhuskers, who ended seven years of frustration with a dramatic and convincing 17-14 victory over the Sooners.

So impressive was the contest that the Orange Bowl dons elected to re-stage a New Year's Day donnybrook between the Big 8 co-champions. As a consequence, Oklahoma gets another crack at its 1978 spoiler and the Huskers get another crack at proving they did it before and they can do it again.

Following Nebraska's victory over Oklahoma in the Big 8's annual glamor game, the Orange Bowl tabbed Nebraska as the host team no matter what transpired the following week. What transpired was a sensational 35-31 upset of the Huskers by the Missouri Tigers which knocked Nebraska out of a national championship date with Penn State in the Orange Bowl. With a NC match down the drain, the OB moguls tossed a bombshell at the Huskers with the announcement Oklahoma had agreed to a re-match.

Thus, the stage is set for one of the more dramatic bowl confrontations of all time and certainly a premier attraction this year. There should be fireworks aplenty in the Orange Bowl—not even counting what the halftime show geniuses are plotting.

Looking back, Nebraska had a whale of a season between the first and the last game. After dropping a 20-3 decision to No. 1-ranked Alabama—which, ironically, gets another shot at the title because of the Nebraska upset by Missouri in its last game—the Cornhuskers stormed to nine straight victories and a No. 2 ranking after the whopping win over the Sooners. Then came the Missouri disaster and the reward for winning the Big 8 co-championship: another square-off with Oklahoma.

Coach Tom Osborne—the 1978 Big 8 Coach of the Year—and his Cornhuskers had a whale of a year, despite the hulaballoo at the end of the season. In posting a 9-2 season and winning a piece of the Big 8 title—no easy task in the nation's toughest football conference—Nebraska posted its 17th consecutive winning season and gained its 10th consecutive post-season appearance and 15th in 17 years.

For Osborne, it was his second co-championship during his six-year career as Bob Devaney's successor, and boosted his career record to 55-15-2, with a winning percentage of .777.

Offense was the name of Nebraska's game in 1978. So potent was the Husker attack that Nebraska led the nation in total offense with a 500-yard, plus total offense average. And the Huskers trailed only Oklahoma in the art of rushing the football. Nebraska averaged 501.4 in total offense and 337.7 in rushing, while scoring at a 38.2 clip per game, second only to the Sooners.

Defensively, Nebraska made great improvement, too, and the Husker Black Shirts set the pace in most Big 8 categories.

Standouts were plentiful, too, led by All America offensive tackle Kelvin Clark and All America defensive end George Andrews. Rick Berns (All Big 8) and I.M. Hipp (All Big 8 in 1977) joined Andra Franklin, Tim Wurth and Craig Johnson to give the Huskers a stable of fine running backs. Tight end Junior Miller (All Big 8) ranks as one of the finest in the nation, while wingback Kenny Brown (All Big 8) and split ends Tim Smith and Frank Lockett were outstanding. Quarterback Tom Sorley was the glue that cemented the Husker attack into the nation's most productive yard producer and he operated behind one of the best offensive lines ever assembled at Nebraska.

Guards Steve Lindquist (All Big 8) and Barney Cotton have few equals, while Tom Ohrt and Clark were outstanding tackles and center Kelly Saalfeld looms as one of the best to ever snap in the Big 8. Depth was plentiful, too, in guards Lawrence Cooley and John Havekost and tackles Steve Glenn and Dan Steiner.

There were Nebraska defensive standouts, too. Andrews was the class of the Big 8 defensive ends, while tackle Rod Horn and monster back Jim Pillen also earned All Big 8 laurels. Kerry Weinmaster is in his third year as a middle guard star, while Dan Pensick, Bill Barnett and David Clark provided outstanding tackle play. Derrie Nelson and Lawrence Cole manned the other end and the linebacking was outstanding, thanks to Lee Kunz and Bruce Dunning, with support from Tom Vering, Brent Williams and John Ruud.

The secondary lacked size and experience prior to the season, but came on strong as the year progressed. Pillen was joined by Tim Fischer, Andy Means and Russell Gary, with a king-sized assist from Jeff Hansen.

Nebraska's kicking game is solid, with Tim Smith punting at a 39.5 clip and Billy Todd place-kicking for 72 points to lead the Huskers. Kenny Brown is third in the national leaders as a punt-returner and Frank Lockett is outstanding at both the punt and kickoff return.

All told, the 1978 Nebraska Cornhuskers blended size, speed, quickness, experience, youthful exhuberance, dedication and outstanding coaching into the simmering pot that is Big 8 football and came up with a receipe for a super football team.

So good, in fact, they've been asked to play it again, Sam—and that's just fine with the Cornhuskers.

TOM OSBORNE

Head Coach

TOM OSBORNE

Head Football Coach
University of Nebraska

Tom Osborne, the 1978 Big 8 Coach of the Year,is completing into his sixth season as the head coach of the Nebraska Cornhuskers, firmly established as one of the outstanding football coaches in the United States.

Osborne's six-year mark of 55-15-2, for a fine winning percentage of .778, puts him in a tie for fifth on the NCAA's list of winningest active coaches with at least five years' experience. Osborne is tied with Alabama's Paul 'Bear' Bryant.

Not only has Osborne won over 76 percent of his games at Nebraska during the last six years, but he has also skippered the Huskers to six Top 10 finishes, six bowl appearances and four postseason victories.

In 1978, the Huskers were 9-2 overall and ranked in the Top 10 of the country, tied for the Big 8 title with Oklahoma and earned a berth in the Orange Bowl.

In 1977, Nebraska was 9-3 overall, tied for second in the always tough Big 8, Liberty Bowl Champs and ranked 10th in the country by UPI. In 1976, Nebraska ended the year 9-3-1 and beat Texas Tech 27-24 in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl. UPI ranked the Huskers no. 7 in '76. The 1975 season saw the Cornhuskers finish the regular season with a 10-1 record before losing, 17-14, to No. 2 ranked Arizona State in the Fiesta Bowl, and winding up No. 9. In 1974, the Huskers ended with a 9-3 mark, beat Florida in the Sugar Bowl and finished No. 8 in the U.S. Then in 1973, Osborne's first year, the Cornhuskers were 9-2-1, defeated Texas in the Cotton Bowl and ended the year ranked No. 7 nationally.

Nebraska's Sugar Bowl win in 1974 was the Huskers' sixth consecutive post-season victory in as many years, tying the national record also shared by Georgia Tech.

Osborne, who graduated from Hastings College before logging pro time with the Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers, joined Devaney as an assistant in 1962. In 1965 he received his Ph.D. in Educational Psychology, then elected football coaching as a career. He coached the Husker receivers and helped build the NU offense into one of the most potent in the nation during the 1970 and 1971 National Championship years.

While Osborne was a newcomer to the head coaching ranks in 1973, he was no stranger to Nebraska football. Osborne was a member of Bob Devaney's incomparable staff for 11 years—the last six as a key organizer of a steam-roller offense.

During his tenure on the Devaney staff, Osborne headed the passing game strategy and coached the receivers. When Devaney announced his retirement from coaching in favor of full-time athletic director duties following the 1971 season, he announced Osborne would be his successor and assistant head coach for his final season of 1972. Osborne served in that capacity and as director of recruiting in 1972, then took the reins in 1973 and became only the third Husker coach in history (W. C. Cole in 1907 and Bob Devaney in 1962) to win eight games in his first season. And he was the first coach in Nebraska history to take his team to a major bowl (Cotton) in his first year.

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid 1950s' Osborne was named Nebraska prep Athlete of the Year. Passing up major college offers, Osborne became the star quarterback and basketball player for Hastings College where both his father and grandfather had matriculated. In 1959 he was named State College Athlete of the Year—the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honor.

Following graduation from Hastings with a Bachelor of Arts Degree, Osborne played two years with the Washington Redskins and one year with the San Francisco 49ers as a flankerback before returning to Nebraska.

In 1962 he contacted Bob Devaney and secured a position as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until he obtained his Master's Degree in 1963. Continuing his dual role in education and football coaching, Osborne gained his Doctor's Degree in 1965 and, holding the Academic rank of Instructor of Educational Psychology in Teacher's College, was a half-time coach.

Osborne elected to pursue coaching full-time in 1967 and became the Huskers' offensive receivers coach, a decision that NU fans have applauded since.

Married to the former Nancy Tederman, Osborne is the father of a young son, Mike and daughters, Ann and Susie.

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director
University of Nebraska

One of the greatest coaches in the history of American football, Bob Devaney is now turning his vast energies toward supervision of the entire athletic program at the University of Nebraska. Devaney heads both the men's and women's athletic progams.

Nebraska has one of the finest athletic plants in the nation, thanks to Devaney's inspiration and leadership during the past 16 years.

Since Devaney became Athletic Director in 1967, Nebraska's Memorial Stadium has an enlarged (9,400) capacity of 73,531—largest in the Big 8—as well as an AstroTurf field and huge press box.

Since 1967, the Cornhuskers have a multi-purpose office building at the south end of Memorial Stadium, and they have an outdoor track facility—Ed Weir Stadium—and a baseball park with new AstroTurf.

Devaney also spear-headed a drive for the new multi-purpose complex that resulted in the Nebraska Legislature voting a cigarette tax to finance a 15,000-seat basketball arena, with adjacent swimming complex and indoor track plant. The result of his efforts was the Bob Devaney Sports Center, which opened its doors in the fall of 1976. Besides the basketball arena, the Devaney Sports Center, located on the Nebraska State Fairgrounds, houses a 220-yard synthetic track with seating for 4,500, a 25 meter x 25 yard swimming pool, and a practice area for the wrestling and gymnastics teams.

Few coaches ever achieved the success Devaney did as headmaster of the Nebraska Cornhuskers from 1962 to 1972. During most of that span he was the "winningest coach in the nation," based on percentage of victories. He wound up with three straight Orange Bowl wins to go with his amazing record of nine bowl trips in 11 years, eight Big 8 titles, two national championships, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Trophy winner, a Heisman Trophy winner and numerous Coach of the Year and similar honors. Twice his teams won four straight titles—1963-1966 and 1969-1972.

In his final season, Devaney's 1972 Huskers went 9-2-1 with a 40-6 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, and Bob led the nation's active coaches with a lifetime record of 136-30-7 for an .806 winning percentage. That year, too, Johnny Rodgers won the Heisman Trophy and Rich Glover swept the Outland and Lombardi Trophies, a feat never equalled by any other school.

Devaney was named Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Football Writers Association after Nebraska's Cornhuskers were undefeated in 13 games in 1971, sweeping to the national championship after winning the Game of the Century against Oklahoma, 35-31.

It was the second-straight national championship for Nebraska. The 1970 team was also undefeated (11-0-1), and during the span of 1969 to 1972, the Huskers went 32 games without a defeat. After Nebraska defeated LSU in the 1971 Orange Bowl game to win its first national title, former President Richard Nixon came to Lincoln to bestow a presidential plaque upon Devaney and co-captains Dan Schneiss and Jerry Murtaugh.

The Devaney Huskers reaped countless honors during those two years—AP and UPI trophies, the Grantland Rice Trophy, the MacArthur Bowl, Big 8 and Orange Bowl trophies and Coach of the Year by the Football News.

All Star games were old hat for Devaney who coached in many post-season classics such as the Hula Bowl, the Coaches All America, the All America Bowl, the Blue-Gray and the Shrine East-West. He also coached the College All Stars against the NFL Champion Dallas Cowboys in the 1972 Chicago game.

At Nebraska, Devaney's teams won 101, lost 20 and tied two in 11 years, following his 35-10-5 record at Wyoming. He never had a losing season at Nebraska and he directed three undefeated teams—in 1965, 1970 and 1971. In 11 years Devaney's teams went to nine post-season games, winning six and losing three. The Huskers played in the Gotham Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Sun Bowl and four times in the Orange Bowl with Devaney at the helm.

Under Devaney's outstanding leadership, too, the Cornhuskers produced 22 All America players and 72 All Big 8 selections in the past ten years.

Devaney played football as an end at Alma College in Michigan, graduating with a B.S. in 1939.

After starting his coaching career at Big Beaver, Mich., High, Devaney moved to Keego Harbor and Saginaw before spending seven years at Alpena High where his teams had a 52-9-0 record. He then joined Biggie Munn, and later Duffy Daugherty, at Michigan State before becoming head coach at Wyoming in 1957.

Devaney is married to his college sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley. His son, Mike, and daughter Patricia, are both graduates of the University of Nebraska. He's a grandfather, too, with Mike's family including a daughter and a son.

JIM ROSS, Assistant Athletic Director and NU Sports Complex Director

Jim Ross, Assistant Athletic Director and former standout freshman and varsity football coach for the Huskers, is in his third year as the Director of Nebraska's new Sports Complex.

Ross, starting his 12th year as Assistant AD, served as the Cornhuskers' head Frosh coach from 1969 to 1975. During his freshman tenure, Ross' 1970, 1971, 1972, 1974 and 1975 teams were undefeated, while he finished with a career mark of 27-2. From 1962 to 1968, he was Nebraska's outstanding defensive backfield coach (NU led the nation in the 1960s).

Entering his 17th year at Nebraska, Ross came to Lincoln in 1962, leaving the University of Wyoming with Bob Devaney and his staff. Ross had served under Devaney for five years at Wyoming and before that at Alpena (Mich.) High School. Prior to teaming with Devaney, Ross was the head football coach at Newaygo (Mich.) High School and Standish (Mich.) High School.

Before entering coaching, Ross played for three years as a center and end at Eastern Michigan College, where he graduated in 1939. After college, he fought with the U.S. Army's 33rd Infantry Division during WWII and won the Bronze Star for gallantry in the Philippines.

A 1950 Masters recipient from Wayne University, Ross is married to the former Maurine Martinson and is the father of three daughters, Sharon, Margaret and Kathleen. He is a grandfather.

PAUL SCHNEIDER, Administrative Assistant

Before becoming the administrative aide, Schnieder was the Huskers long time Head Trainer. He was the NU Head Trainer from 1952-1976, 25 years.

Schneider graduated from Nebraska in 1952, the same year he became trainer. As a student, he was an assistant trainer and also helped coach the Nebraska golf team.

Before that, he was co-owner with his brother of a golf course in Hastings from 1946-50. Then, from 1940-46, he served with the 319th Bomb Group as an Air Force Captain.

Among his honors are, host trainer for the National Trainers Conference at Lincoln in 1954, accompanying the Huskers to 14 postseason football games, receiving his 25-year service award from the National Athletic Trainers Association, and being named the KFOR Sportsman of the Year. This May, he received the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame 1978 Special Merit Award.

Schneider and his wife, Georgia, have three daughters—Connie, Pam and Cindy, and a son, Jeff, a past NU football letterman.

Borgialli came to Nebraska in the fall of 1964 after coaching wrestling at Niobrara County High School in Luck, Wyoming, one of the toughest prep wrestling schools in the state.

A native of Newcastle, Wyoming, Borgialli participated in high school wrestling, football, and track. He then attended Nebraska State Teachers College in Chadron, and was an outstanding athlete—competing on the football team for four years and going undefeated in dual wrestling meets. He received his bachelor's degree at Chardron and his master's at Colorado State Teachers College in Greeley, Colorado.

Borgialli appeared in the 1970 edition of Outstanding Young Men of America. He was also meet director for wrestling competition for the 1974 and 1977 Junior Olympics, both held in Lincoln.

The 1978 edition of the Cornhusker Marching Band began to take shape in April with the annual spring auditions program. From the 320 hopefuls auditioning for a position in the organization, 260 are invited to attend Fall Camp, which begins one week before school opens in August. During this week of playing and marching fundamentals, the students are evaluated once more and the final selections are made to determine the membership of the Band. Preparations then begin in earnest for the pre-game show and the half-time music for the home opener. Rehearsals and field drills total five hours a day during camp and in just one short week over 200 students are transformed into a performing unit known as the NU Cornhusker Marching Band. During the regular class schedule of the fall semeseter the Band rehearses from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. Monday through Friday.

Band Director Robert Fought is assisted on the field by Joyce Thimgan, Flag Corps director, and graduate assistant Mark Hopp. Drum Majors Matt Finkner and Dennis Mann, and Solo Twirler Debbie Kerpchar return from last season.

Marching Red is scheduled to perform at the Nebraska-KU contest in Lawrence, Kansas on November 4, with 30-member pep band traveling to the other Big Eight conference games.

The Husker Band has always enjoyed performing for the fans in Memorial Stadium and 1978 promises to be another exciting season of football and band pagentry—Nebraska style!

Huskers lose to No. 1 ranked Alabama 20-3

Birmingham, Ala. (Sept. 2, 1978) Nebraska's Cornhuskers traveled to Birmingham to open the 1978 season against Paul "Bear" Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide and the Tide showed why they were ranked No. 1 in the nation as they turned back the Huskers 20-3.

With a national ABC-TV audience and a record crowd of 77,023 looking on, Nebraska jumped to an early 3-0 lead on a 48-yard field goal by Billy Todd, with 8:14 left in the first period. Nebraska had moved to the Alabama 31 on their first possession before the drive stalled and the Huskers settled for the field goal.

The teams played even until midway through the second quarter when Alabama had a 99-yard, seven minute drive with Major Ogilvie catching a four-yard Jeff Rutledge pass for the score.

In the second half, Alabama controlled the line of scrimmage and scored two more times. The Crimson Tide added their second touchdown in the third quarter when an intercepted pass led to 39-yard drive with halfback Tony Nathan going over from the one.

Another Husker turnover resulted in the final Tide score when NU fumbled on its own three yard line late in the fourth quarter. Alabama recovered the miscue and scored three plays later, on a one yard Rutledge run, to make the final score 20-3.

Nebraska Rebounds to Defeat California in Thriller

Lincoln, Neb. (Sept. 9, 1978) The Nebraska Cornhuskers came back from an opening season loss to Alabama to beat the California Golden Bears 36-26.

With 75,980 red-clad fans looking on (the 94th straight sellout) the Golden Bears drew first blood when the Huskers fumbled the ball on their own 20-yard line and California recovered. A 12 yard pass from Rich Campbell to Floyd Eddings put the Bears on top, 7-0.

The Cornhuskers tied it up before halftime with some nifty ball handling. Quarterback Tom Sorley pitched to I. M. Hipp who in turn pitched back to Sorley, who then passed 57 yards to wingback Kenny Brown. Nebraska scored five plays later with Sorley sneaking over from the one.

The two clubs traded touchdowns in the third quarter which set up the explosive final period in which 34 points were scored. Nebraska scored with only 1:38 gone in the final frame when Sorley hit wingback Maurice McCloney with a 32-yard touchdown strike. The Huskers came right back in the next 45 seconds to score again. NU Defensive end Laurence Cole recovered a California fumble in the end zone to make it NU 29-CB 14 as Nebraska went for two on the point after.

The Huskers scored once more on a fullback Andra Franklin run and California added two more tallies to make the final 36-26.

Nebraska was led by I. M. Hipp's 154 yards on the ground and Tom Sorley's 190 yards through the air.

HUSKERS' OFFENSE ROLLS PAST HAWAII 56-10 FOR WIN NUMBER TWO

Lincoln, Nebraska (September 16, 1978)—Dominating from the opening kickoff, the Huskers used 35 first half points to pull away to an easy 56-10 victory. The win upped the Husker's record to 2-1 with a television date with Indiana the following week in Bloomington.

Everyone got into the scoring act as eight Huskers tallied scores. I. M. Hipp led off the scoring, caping a 78 yard drive in 11 plays on the Husker's first possesion of the game with a 10 yard run. Nebraska added touchdowns by sophomore fullback Andra Franklin, Tom Sorley, Frank Lockett and a 52 yard punt return by Kenny Brown in the second quarter to account for their first half blitz of the Rainbows.

The Rainbows capitalized on a Nebraska turnover and the strong kicking leg of Peter Kim to rally 10 third quarter points, but it wasn't enough to slow the Huskers. With the reserves playing most of the second half Nebraska rolled up 599 yards total offense for the day.

HUSKERS DEFENSE SHINES IN 23-0 SHUT OUT OF IOWA STATE

Ames, Iowa (October 7, 1978)—Behind the running of Junior I-back Tim Wurth and the Huskers strongest defensive effort to date, Nebraska opened their Big 8 schedule with a 23-0 shut out of border rival Iowa State.

Wurth, who got his first start as a Cornhusker against the Cyclones, made the most of it, carrying 18 times for 102 yards and one touchdown. But Wurth's performance was not the only brillant one of the day, as the Balckshirts swarmed Iowa State running back Dexter Green, holding the Cyclones all-time leading rusher to just 46 yards on 20 carries, and limited the Iowa State offensive attack to just 82 yards total offense.

The Huskers used a quarterback sneak by Tom Sorley in the first quarter and a 32 yard field goal to post a 9-0 halftime lead. Then two fourth quarter touchdowns, a 17 yard scoring strike from Sorley to Kenny Brown and 15 yard gallop by Wurth closed out the scoring for the Huskers.

NEBRASKA EXPLODES IN SECOND HALF TO BEAT K-STATE

Lincoln, Neb. (October, 14, 1978) Nebraska pulled away in the second half to put away the Kansas State Wildcats, 48-14. The Huskers and Wildcats fought a tough battle in the first half, with Nebraska holding a 14-7 advantage at intermission.

The Huskers gained close to 300 yards in the first half but were only able to put two TD's on the board. Tom Sorley sneaked over for the Huskers with 13:56 left in the first half to give NU a 7-0 lead. Sorley then passed to tight end Junior Miller for a 54 yard TD strike with 6:43 left in the half. K-state scored on an 87 yard pass with 2:05 left.

Nebraska broke the game open in the first minute of the second half as the Cornhuskers scored twice. A four yard run by Fullback Rick Berns made it 21-7, and NU recovered a fumble on the ensueing kickoff and scored one play later to put the game out of reach.

I.M. Hipp had another good day gaining 183 yards, 113 of those in the first half. The offense once again went over the 600 yard mark in total yards with 606. Tom Sorley continued to harass opponents with the pass as he threw for 218 yards.

HUSKERS OUTPLAY BUFFS FOR BIG WIN

Boulder Colo. (Oct. 21, 1978) Both the offensive and defensive units played superbly as the Huskers continued their domination over the Colorado Buffalos 52-14. The Buffs jumped to an early 14-3 lead on a 100 yard Howard Ballage kick-off return and a two yard James Mayberry run.

But from there, it was all Nebraska. Two field goals by Billy Todd, two touchdowns by Rick Berns, and four other NU scores accounted for the margin of victory.

The Nebraska Blackshirts held the Buffs to 185 total yards and intercepted three passes. Linebackers Lee Kunz and Bruce Dunning led the Huskers with 11 and nine tackles respectively.

The offense tallied 641 total yards, 463 coming on the ground. Rick Berns paced the Husker backfield with 132 yards and two touchdowns. I.M. Hipp added 92 yards and one TD while quarterback Tom Sorley completed eleven passes for 178 yards.

Place kicker Billy Todd kicked three field goals of 27, 24, and 45 yards and added three PAT's to lead the Husker scoring attack.

TODD FIELD GOALS THE DIFFERENCE AS HUSKERS HOLD OFF COWBOYS 22-14

Lincoln, Nebraska (October 28, 1978)—Oklahoma State traveled to Lincoln with just a 2-5 record, but the always tough Cowboys nearly came away with a tie against No. 5 ranked Nebraska. Despite a fine kicking effort from Billy Todd, Nebraska had to turn back a late fourth quarter Oklahoma State drive at the Husker 19 to salvage the win 22-17.

Oklahoma State took their first possesion of the game and pushed down the field 80 yards to take an early 7-0 lead on a 13 yard run by Ed Smith. The Huskers were unable to score in the first quarter, but 19 second quarter points, put the Huskers comfortably out in front at the half 19-7. In the second, Nebraska scored on a 1 yard run by Tom Sorley and a 20 yard pass from Sorley to Rick Berns. Todd added one extra point and field goals of 23 and 28 yards.

After a third quarter touchdown by Oklahoma State's Terry Suellentrop, making it NU 19-OSU 14, Todd kicked his third, three pointer of the day—this one 42 yards—with :15 left in the quarter to give the Husker's their final 8 point margin.

But it was far from over, as late in the fourth quarter, with OSU on the Husker 19 yard line, the Cowboys attempted a pass in the end zone—the receiver was open, but the ball was over his head—and Husker hearts started beating once again.

Nebraska led by only 7-0 after the first quarter, but erupted for five second period TD's to hold a 42-7 halftime edge.

The Huskers scored three times in a five minute span in the second period to put the game out of reach. A one yard Quarterback sneak by Tom Sorley, a 64 yard jaunt by Craig Johnson, and a 44 yard pass from Sorley to tight end Junior Miller broke the game open.

Craig Johnson, the NU offensive player of the game, gained 192 yards on ten carries and scored twice, to pace the Huskers. Johnson, a third team I-back, playing because injuries sidelined Rick Berns and Tim Wurth, also caught a 78-yard screen pass for a touchdown.

HUSKERS ORANGE BOWL BOUND AFTER STUNNING 17-14 UPSET OF OKLAHOMA

Lincoln, Nebraska (Nov. 11, 1978)—With 76,015 screaming fans in the stands and millions more watching on national ABC-TV, the Huskers carried the fight to unbeaten and top ranked Oklahoma to gain a 17-14 upset win. It was the Huskers ninth straight victory since losing to Alabama in the season opener.

It was a hard hitting defensive effort that caused nine Sooner fumbles—NU recovered six—and a balanced offensive attack, 250 yards rushing and 111 yards passing, that paced the Huskers to their first win over archrival Oklahoma since the 1971 "Game of the Century." The win locked up at least a tie for the conference title and a trip to Miami, January 1 in the Orange Bowl.

On offense it was the rugged running of senior I-Back Rick Berns who carried the ball 25 times for 113 yards and one touchdown. On defense, it was senior monster back Jim Pillen, with 8 tackles and two fumble recoveries, leading the charge. Others turning in fine defensive efforts were linebackers Bruce Dunning and Lee Kunz, defensive end George Andrews and defensive back Jeff Hansen. For their efforts, Berns and Pillen were named offensive and defensive Players of the Game" by ABC and Chevrolet. Berns and Pillen also received "Big 8 Player of the Week" stipends.

It wasn't just the individual performances, but a team effort that led the Huskers to a sensational finish which saw Nebraska go ahead, then stave off the Sooners and finally force Billy Sims to fumble at the Nebraska three-yard line with just 3:27 remaining in the game.

HUSKERS UPSET VICTIMS IN 35-31 MISSOURI WIN

Lincoln, Nebraska (Nov. 18, 1978)—After a big win over Oklahoma the previous week, Nebraska head Coach Tom Osborne was admittly concerned heading into the season final against Missouri about the chance of a mental letdown against a tough and upset minded Tiger squad. Osborne's worries turned into reality in the form of a 35-31 loss.

Rick Berns churned to a record breaking 255 yards and two touchdowns on 35 carries to set the Nebraska single game rushing mark and the career rushing record of 2605 yards. But Berns' performance wasn't enough to counter a potent Missouri attack, led by the running of James Wilder—with 181 yards and four touchdowns—and the pass receiving of All-Big 8 tightend performer Kellen Winslow.

Berns led off the scoring on the first play of the game from scrimmage by ripping off an 82 yard run. The early score was a sign of what was to come as both teams moved almost at will throughout the game and it was the last team to score that came away with the win.

The loss dropped Nebraska back into a tie for the conference title and later brought a surprising rematch with Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

NEBRASKA BOWL HISTORY AND RECORDS

1941 ROSE BOWL
STANFORD 21, NEBRASKA 13

Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a post-season bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all—The Rose Bowl. Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the three. Stanford tied the count just four plays later when Pete Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out. In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig-to-Allen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter.

1955 ORANGE BOWL
DUKE 34, NEBRASKA 7

If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, it's second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule. Making their first bowl appearance in 15 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half 14-0 and pulled within 14-7 early in the second half after a minus-two-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke. Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

1962 GOTHAM BOWL
NEBRASKA 36, MIAMI, FLA. 34

Playing under coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in sub-freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter. Willie Ross' one-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thorton's subsequent two-point run gave the Huskers' the lead for good, 36-27, with 12:10 left. Mira, who passed for 321 yards led a valiant comeback attempt, but was thwarted by a last-minute interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

NEBRASKA 13, AUBURN 7

Nebraska made it's second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries. Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen set another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead. Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go.

1965 COTTON BOWL
ARKANSAS 10, NEBRASKA 7

Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history. Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McKnelly field goal in the first quarter. But soph Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a one-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Pokers held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

ALABAMA 39, NEBRASKA 28

With the National Championship riding on the line, coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third, Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national game in the Orange Bowl. Playing in the first night bowl game ever, 'Bama won the title, 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and set passing and receiving records.

1967 SUGAR BOWL
ALABAMA 34, NEBRASKA 7

Never ones to duck a challenge, coach Bob Devaney and his Cornhuskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping. The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparkled again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

Golden-toed Paul Rogers booted a Nebraska and Sun Bowl record four field goals—in the first quarter—and coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl. Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomre I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109.

NEBRASKA 17, LOUISIANA STATE 12

Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances. Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17 in the Rose. That left the doors to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a three-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead. Nebraska showed its grit by driving 67 yards, Jerry Tagge stretching the ball over from the one with 6:10 left and the whole world knew Nebraska was No. 1.

NEBRASKA 38, ALABAMA 6

It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century" rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide were No. 2 and the OB had a dream game—for a little less than a quarter. The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza, and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1—Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving the Huskers a second straight national title and coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama coach Bear Bryant.

NEBRASKA 40, NOTRE DAME 6

Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come. "Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his record 50 career TDs by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to paydirt.

NEBRASKA 19, TEXAS 3

Nebraska's Cornhuskers broke open a tight scoring contest in the third quarter with a pair of game-breaker plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game at Dallas. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big 8 runnersup and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn one-yard-line stand just before the gun. But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdown. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays later Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring. Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

1974 SUGAR BOWL
NEBRASKA 13, FLORIDA 10

Rallying from a 10-0 halftime deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the second half to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers sixth straight bowl victory, tying Nebraska with Georgia Tech for consecutive bowl wins.

From the very start, it was a tough, up hill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Black Shirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-Back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and the score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Setting up the next two Husker scores was the fanatical running of Davis. Overall he ran for 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's Most Valuable Player, an award which he also received in the Cotton Bowl.

Nebraska's final scores came on field goals by Coyle. Coyle tied the score on a successful 37-yard boot with only 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, Coyle's 39-yard kick was good, and the Huskers had won their sixth post-season game.

1975 FIESTA BOWL
ARIZONA STATE 17, NEBRASKA 14

Nebraska's six bowl game winning streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 fans in Tempe, Ariz.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, giving the Sun Devils a 17-14 lead.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31 yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers first two plays from there were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21 yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered it and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

Despite the loss, a major milestone in Nebraska football history was established during the game, when Davis became the Huskers all time leading rusher. 'Tough Tony' finished his three year career with 2,445 yards, 25 more than Jeff Kinney gained from 1969-71.

So Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1 ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2 ranked Sun Devils.

1976 ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL
NEBRASKA 27, TEXAS TECH 24

In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged past a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome ten-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an eight-yard touchdown run to put Nebraska down 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers then took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito, who gained 107 yards in three catches, for a 23-yard touchdown pass. That score, which would prove to be the winning touchdown, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

NEBRASKA 21, NORTH CAROLINA 17

Nebraska scored twice in the fourth quarter on two Randy Garcia touchdown passes to rally from a 17-7 deficit and defeat the University of North Carolina 21-17 in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Following a scoreless opening quarter, North Carolina opened the scoring in the second period, on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams, with 13:52 left in the quarter. The extra point was good and NC led 7-0.

But Nebraska came right back with nine minutes left in the half and scored on a 15-yard run by fullback Dodie Donnell. Billy Todd's extra point tied it at 7-all.

However, the Tar Heels took a 14-7 lead into the lockerrooms when with 3:11 left in the half, Kupec passed 10 yards to fullback Bob Loomis for the touchdown and with the extra point, NC led 14-7.

At the 4:17 mark of the third period, North Carolina got its final score, a 47-yard field gold by Tom Biddle, making it NC 17-NU 7.

Garcia entered the game in the fourth quarter and threw two touchdown passes, leading the Huskers to the win. The first came with 10:51 left, a 10-yarder to Curtis Craig, and the second, with 3:16 left, a 34-yarder to split end Tim Smith.

For the game, Garcia completed all three of his passes for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and for his effort, he was named the Nebraska Offensive Player of the game.

FACTS ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

A Brief History—

The University of Nebraska, now an institution of three major components—the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Omaha and University of Nebraska Medical Center, Omaha—and a collection of agricultural experiment stations and related offices across the state, was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 and held its first classes in 1871 in a 3-story brick building on the outskirts of Lincoln.

At its chartering, the University was committed to instruct in agriculture, the "mechanic arts," and military tactics by the terms of the Land-Grant College Act of 1862 to which the Legislature subscribed. These special endeavors, however, were made parts of the total University program with the result that Nebraska, unlike some of its neighbors, has had but one major institution of higher education.

The early years were fraught with internal ideological conflicts, with financial problems and with shortages of collegiate students. The University not only survived without interruption, it managed to establish the first program of graduate education west of the Mississippi in the mid-1880s. By 1909 it had attained membership in the select Association of American Universities, a tribute to the high quality of its faculty and scholastic programs.

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln now has nine Colleges, plus four Schools and many other programs. Thirty-nine doctoral level, 61 masters, 110 undergraduate and 15 pre-professional areas of study are offered.

Lack of financial support forced the University in 1888 to close the Medical College it had opened in Lincoln five years earlier. In 1902, the University reentered the field of medical education, taking over the Omaha Medical College. This became the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha.

Since the adoption of the Nebraska constitution in 1875, the University has been governed by an elected Board of Regents. In 1968, pursuant to legislative action and a city-wide election in Omaha, the Board of Regents was made responsible for governance of the former municipal University of Omaha, renamed the University of Nebraska at Omaha. In 1970, the number of regents was increased from six to eight. This number was increased again in 1974, when a representative of the student body from each of the three campuses became a non-voting member.

In 1971, the chief executive officer of the University was given the title of President. The executive heads of the three components, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, were accorded the titles of chancellor and Vice President.
